Rousseau.

Farmers will about get done planting corn this week. The cattle buyers are as thick as frogs. People are hereby warned not to come to Berry Howard's mill on Sundays, as the Juniors do not approve of it. It is a dirty shame for men to degrade the county in such a manner or to impose on God's feeling after He gave His only son for us. R. D. Harding, of Dayton, will visit Bethany Council, No. 173, on May 28. All councils and the public are invited to be present at one o'clock. A special invitation is extended to the Jackson council. I advise all ministers who want to meet good people to go to Clemmons, on the south fork of Quick sand, to preach this summer. Rev. Daniel McIntosh and others will preach at L. D. Williams' school house May 31. The people will meet at R. M. McQuinn's grave yard on May 30 to decorate the graves of departed friends. Services at 9 o'clock and at Jo Lovely's at 11 a. m., at Risner point at 2 p. m. and at Minnix's at 4 o'clock. Everybody invited to take a part.

Arthur Creech, of Campton, was here on business Monday.

Roy and Reed Williams, twin brothers, of Valeria, visited their brother, M. S. Crain, the first of the week.

Mrs. Dulcena Hurst is very sick at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Steele. She was 87 years of age Wednesday.

W. Z. Eubank, of Kiddville, was here on business Wednesday.

Should Select Good Men.

The last of the Jackson Democrat contained an editorial on the importance of selecting good men for our Democratic ticket for the campaign of 1909, in order that all possibilities of defeat may be eradicated and Democracy crowned with a crown of laurels which she will never wear in the future. In doing by that dear teacher, ex-Louise, the Democratic party has been taught the truthfulness of that statement, and as the day of gloom of remorse and defeat passes over and we again discover on the horizon the star of success shining in all the brightness of a midday sun, our hearts are wrung with such raptures of delight that we are almost unable to suppress our joys from manifesting itself in the wildest shouts of the same. True Democracy of '96 is just the same today. Has she come to leave us? No, never to leave us again. We have learned by the instructions of experience that strife in the ranks is fatal to all the vitals of partyism. We should select a ticket of clean-handed, honest, brave and sincere men, unpolled with past political troubles; Democrats conservative in their views without strife or contention.

The Democrat also stated the great responsibilities involved upon the official of county clerk and the importance of selecting a worthy man for that position. In that editorial a young man of wide acquaintance and a member of one of the leading Democratic families and directly connected with many others by ties of kinship and friendship, whose announcement is found in that paper and also in The News, was made choice of to bear these responsibilities. The young man is Mr. Alfred Russell. Mr. Russell, by misfortune in his infancy, is wholly disabled from doing manual labor, yet by his own energy he has acquired a good common school education and by diligent work in the school room is estimated among the leading teachers of our county. His popularity is such that almost the entire eastern and southeastern portion of the county would vote for him almost to a man, regardless of partyism. Knowing his ability for the position and after viewing from every standpoint, finding him honest, brave and true, and considering his popularity, it seems quite certain he will have no opposition at least for the nomination.
